SHANKER DAYAL SHARMA,
President.

K.L. MOHANPURIA,
Secy. to the Government of India.

Reasons for the enactment

With a view to ensuring standards of higher education, the State Government decided to introduce the principle of "one curriculum-one examination" in the State Universities pertaining to general studies. With this aim in view a high level Committee, consisting of Vice-Chancellors of seven Universities and experts was constituted by the State Government. After the consideration of the recommendations of the said Committee, and for accomplishing the said object it was decided to amend the Uttar Pradesh State Universities Act, 1973 to provide for the constitution of a "Co-ordination Council" under the Chairmanship of the Chancellor, the functions of which should be to recommend, for the Universities of general studies, common course of study for the first degree course, to recommend ways and means of cooperation and co-ordination in respect of academic programmes amongst the Universities and to make recommendations after consideration on matters of common interest of the Universities, and also to provide for the constitution of a Central Board of Studies for foundation course and other subjects or group of subjects which shall be constituted by the Chancellor on the recommendation of the said Co-ordination Council. Besides this, it was also decided to do away with the condition restricting teacher substantively appointed to the post of Lecturer or Reader to avail of the facility of personal promotion to the post of Reader or Professor respectively only once in his whole service after rendering a definite length of service and to change the names of "Doctor Ram Manohar Lohia University, Faizabad" and "Kashi Vidyapith, Varanasi" as "Doctor Ram Manohar Lohia Avadh University, Faizabad" and "Mahatma Gandhi Kashi Vidyapith, Varanasi" respectively.

2. To implement the said decisions, the Uttar Pradesh State Universities (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1995 (U.P. Ordinance No. 28 of 1995) was promulgated by the Governor on July 11, 1995.

3. Certain amendments in the provisions of the said Ordinance were under consideration of the State Government and, therefore, the replacing Bill thereof could not be introduced in the session of the Uttar Pradesh State Legislature commencing on July 14, 1995. Since the provisions of the said ordinance would have ceased to remain operative after August 25, 1995, it was decided to promulgate an Ordinance to keep the provisions of the said Ordinance in force with certain amendments such as to provide for the affiliation of the institutions established or proposed to be established for imparting education or instructions in Western Medical Science, engineering, technology or management any where in the Uttar Pradesh to any University subject to the directions issued in this behalf by the State Government, removal of the condition of the recommendation of the Co-ordination Council for the nomination of the Chairman of Central Board of Studies for foundation course and other Central Boards of Studies.

4. The Uttar Pradesh State Universities (Second Amendment) (Second) Ordinance, 1995 (U.P. Ordinance No. 33 of 1995) was, accordingly, promulgated by the Governor on August 25, 1995.

5. To perpetuate the memory of Bharat Ratna Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar, an able son of the country, jurist and social reformer and Shri Shahu Ji Maharaj, a famous social worker, it was decided to change the names of the University of Agra and Kanpur University as "Doctor Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Agra" and "Shri Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur" respectively.

6. To implement the said decision, the Uttar Pradesh State Universities (Third Amendment) Ordinance, 1995. (U.P. Ordinance No. 37 of 1995) was promulgated by the Governor on September 23, 1995.

7. The President issued a proclamation on the 18th October, 1995 under article 356 of the Constitution, in relation to the State of Uttar Pradesh, declaring, inter alia, that the powers of legislature of the State shall be exercised by or under the authority of Parliament. Parliament has, under article 357 (1) (a) of the Constitution, now conferred on the President, the powers of the Legislature of the State of Uttar Pradesh to make laws vide the Uttar Pradesh State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1995 (2 of 1996).

8. The said Ordinances could not be replaced by an Act and the Ordinance is expiring on 7th January, 1996. It is, therefore, decided that the said Ordinance shall be replaced by a President's Act.

9. Under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Uttar Pradesh State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1995 (2 of 1996) the President shall, before enacting any President's Act, consult a Committee constituted for the purpose consisting of the members of both the Houses of Parliament. As the said Committee has yet not been constituted and the matter is very urgent, it is proposed to enact the measure without reference to the said Committee.

P. R. DASGUPTA,
Secy. to the Government of India.
